Small Group Discussion Questions
Mark 14:32-52

Prayer makes you _____ so you can _____ in God’s will (32-42).

1. This the first time Jesus has ever been distressed. Why is He so distressed and what battle is He fighting?

2. What do we learn about how Jesus was both God and man from his prayer in the garden? Reference Philippians 2:5-11, Hebrews 4:15 and 5:7-10.

3. How can we apply how Jesus prays in Mark 14:36?

Prayer keeps you _____ when you’re _____ doing God’s will (43-52).

4. While Jesus is bunkering down in prayer, the disciples choose to sleep. What does Jesus teach about the result and the reason for prayer in Mark 14:38? What are the results of being spiritually alert vs. not alert in this passage? In your life? What needs to change so you stay alert?
